

Angie Hughes Walker has over 20 years' experience in healthcare to include quality improvement, meaningful use, patient centered medical home and comprehensive primary care initiative. She successfully applied practice transformation processes across providers, staff, technology, and patients for the multiple value-based programs her practice is involved in. She is married to Randy Walker, M.D. and manages his Family Practice Clinic in De Queen, Arkansas. The clinic is open 7 days a week from 7am-7pm, offers after hours triage and has a patient base of over 11,000.

"Born and raised in Northeast Arkansas, I am a 1997 graduate of Remington College in Little Rock, Arkansas with an Associate's Degree in Paralegal Studies. In 2003, Dr. Walker and I relocated to De Queen, to establish a Family Practice Clinic and begin caring for the residents of Sevier County. We believe in working hard for our patients, employees and community. We have one son, Jackson Walker, aka "JW" or 'Precious', that we are absolutely crazy about.."
